MEMORANDUM

---

YOUR HONOR:

The above-referenced defendant appeared before Your Honor on October 11, 2005, after a bench warrant was issued by U.S. Magistrate Judge, Joseph C. Spero, on September 15, 2005. The defendant had been in the custody of Monterey County after being arrested on trespassing charges in Salinas, California and was then released to federal custody.

On October 11, 2005, Your Honor ordered that the defendant be referred for a dual diagnosis assessment while in federal custody. On October 17, 2005, New Bridge Foundation residential program assessed the defendant and found him to be appropriate for a dual diagnosis program. New Bridge has indicated that they currently have bed space available and are willing to transport the defendant from custody to the program once a court order is issued.

As such, Pretrial Services recommends that Your Honor order the defendant released to New Bridge so he can participate in their dual diagnosis program.

Respectfully Submitted,

Timothy R. Elder II
U.S. Pretrial Services Officer
